Please note the date for attendance on the subpoena is the start date of the trial. This trial may run for a number of days or weeks from that date. At this stage its unknown which day or time you will be required to give evidence, you may not be required to give evidence on the commencement date listed on the subpoena. Upon receipt of your subpoena you must contact your DPP Prosecutor or Witness Assistance Officer on 08 8935 7500 or free call 1800 659 449. They will confirm your contact details, and in due course advise the date you are required to give evidence and arrange any necessary travel.

Loss of wages

A person required to attend court is entitled to reimbursement for loss of salary or wages. A letter must be provided by the employer, on letterhead stating the employees' details and total loss of nett wages, time off includes travel time required to attend court. Please see example letter provided. In arranging this time off work you should take unpaid leave rather than using paid leave options.

Loss of income (self-employed)

Self-employed persons may be reimbursed for loss of income. Such claims are to be substantiated by a letter from the self-employed person's accountant showing net loss of income, again this includes loss of wages for travel time required to attend court.

Local transportation to court

Witnesses who are required to attend court and incur public transport costs (e.g. bus fare) will be reimbursed. Complete the Witness Expense Claim form and return with receipts.

Kilometre Allowance

If you are required to travel more than 40kms from your normal place of residence to attend court you may be able to claim a kilometre allowance. If no passenger service (air, train, bus) is scheduled and you travel by personal vehicle you may submit a claim of $0.94 per km. If a scheduled service is available, the amount payable to the witness is the equivalent bus fare within the NT or airfare for interstate witnesses. Fuel receipts cannot be claimed in addition to this allowance. Please complete the Witness Expense Claim form.

Airfares

All airfares are booked in economy class. You should be provided with a copy of your itinerary and travel details prior to departure, please call the office on the above numbers if not received. Present your personal identification and subpoena at departure check-in.

Taxis

Cabcharge vouchers are available to assist with airport transfers. Witnesses requiring Cabcharge vouchers are to contact the Witness Assistance Officer on 1800 659 449 two (2) weeks prior to the court date to arrange vouchers. Please ensure the taxi company accepts the voucher prior to travel, the vouchers are accepted universally in the NT.

Intrastate & Interstate Witnesses

Interstate and NT witness's required overnight can receive a daily meal allowance for three (3) meals per day, as follows (all prices include GST):

Breakfast: $21.00 Lunch: $32.30 Dinner: $45.40 Daily total $98.70

Witnesses under the age of 12 years halve the above meal allowances.

Meal allowance will only be payable to witnesses who are absent from their place of residence overnight or for more than 12 hours. If witnesses eat outside the hotel, receipts must be provided to claim reimbursement. Meals are generally covered as part of the accommodation booking and can be booked against your room number, in line with the meal allowance guidelines.

DPP will arrange your accommodation but will not pay for additional expenses incurred during your stay, including but not limited to: additional guests without approval, minibar, alcohol, movies or incurred costs for damages and late check-out.

Government Employees

Employees of a State, Federal, Local or Territory Government Department or Statutory body are eligible to claim any reasonable costs incurred to attend court. The employee shall not have entitlements eroded/lost as a result of their attendance and should address this with their respective Departments prior to court.

Expert witness

An expert witness is a person who the Prosecution has defined as being called to give evidence that involves a particular specialisation in private enterprise. The claimant must provide a tax compliant invoice. The rate is outlined in the High Court Rules of Australia and can be discussed with a DPP Staff member.

Interpreter Fees

Where a person has been called by the Crown in their capacity as an Interpreter, rates set by the Office of Ethnic Affairs apply - $30.00/hour, $150.00/half day (up to 5 hours) and $300.00/full day. A kilometre allowance of $0.94/km shall apply if a private vehicle is used to attend court.

All witnesses are to contact the Witness Assistance Officer on free call 1800 659 449 at least one (1) week prior to the court date.

This is an EXAMPLE of the letter your employer or accountant will need to provide. Submit the letter with your claim for loss of wages.
